Alumni Meet Seminar on "Architecting your Professional Pathway" Report

Venue: ICT Hall-1

Date: March 4th, 2024 at 10:30 am

The Department of Computer Science organized an Alumni Meet Seminar titled "Architecting your Professional Pathway" on 4th March, 2024 hosted at the esteemed ICT Hall - 1. The event, graced by the presence of Mr. Madhuprasad R, General Manager – IT at Belstar Microfinance Limited and a notable alumnus (MCA 2004-2007) of our institution, was tailored to offer students invaluable insights into shaping their professional trajectories. Commencing with a soul-stirring rendition of the traditional prayer song (TamilthaiVazhththu) and a heartfelt welcome extended by Ms. P. Devika from II B.Sc Computer Science, the ambiance was set for a day brimming with enlightenment. Dr. A. Venkatesan, our esteemed Principal, delivered a thought-provoking presidential address, underscoring the abundant opportunities and promising career avenues within the realm of computer science. Dr. K. Mani, our venerable Associate Professor and Department Head, eloquently introduced Mr. Madhuprasad R, extolling his remarkable professional journey and expertise. Throughout his keynote session, Mr. Madhuprasad R illuminated the audience with the ever-evolving demands of the industry, emphasizing the pivotal role of hands-on projects in honing skills. His discourse was peppered with pragmatic advice, from leveraging online courses to refining communication prowess, all vital for navigating the competitive job market. Moreover, Mr. Madhuprasad R delineated the diverse spectrum of roles available in the industry, urging students to align their career aspirations with their passions and aptitudes. As the seminar drew to a close, Mr. Madhuprasad R's parting words resonated deeply, echoing the sentiment of continuous learning and the invaluable support offered by the department faculty. With a robust attendance of over 110 students, the seminar served as a beacon of enlightenment, reaffirming our commitment to nurturing and empowering the next generation of computer science professionals. Dr. V. Umadavi, Assistant Professor from the Department of Computer Science, extended heartfelt gratitude to the speaker, organizers, and attendees for their contributions towards making the seminar a success.
