Detailed Report of the Program

PG and Research Department of Commerce and Economics, Nehru Memorial College jointly organized Awareness Programme on the eve of celebrating the National Insurance Day on 28th June 2024. This initiative aimed to educate students about the importance of insurance in personal finance management and risk mitigation.

The event commenced with Tamil Thai Vazthu.

The program began with a warm welcome address by Dr. T. GAYATHRI, Head of the Department of Commerce, Nehru Memorial College, who greeted distinguished Principal and Chief Guests, Faculty Members and Students.

Dr. A. VENKATESAN, Principal – Nehru Memorial College, offered felicitations, appreciating the efforts of the organizers and the resource persons. He emphasized the significance of National Insurance Day and its role in promoting awareness about the various aspects of insurance.

Dr. G. BALASUBRAMANIAN, Assistant Professor of Commerce, Nehru Memorial College introduced the Resource Persons to the audience.

Thiru. K. SURESH, Branch Manager, LIC-Thuraiyur, provided an overview of different types of insurance available, including life insurance, property insurance, health insurance and auto insurance. He explained the need for students and faculty to understand the basics of each type and how they can benefit from them.

Thiru. A.M. SHIVASUBRAMANIAN, Assistant Branch Manager, LIC-Thuraiyur, highlighted the critical role insurance plays in providing financial security and peace of mind. He clarified how insurance helps individuals and families manage risks and uncertainties, ensuring stability in times of unexpected events such as accidents and illness.

Thiru. K. JAYABAL, Development Officer, LIC-Thuraiyur, offered valuable advice on selecting the right insurance policies. He also encouraged the students what are the employment opportunities available in insurance sectors.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. T. PORSELVI, Head Department of Economics, and an interactive session with the students.

The program was well-attended by students and staff of the college, and was a resounding success in creating awareness about the importance of insurance.

Conclusion: The National Insurance Day Awareness Programme organized by the Department of Commerce and Economics was a resounding success. It not only enhanced students' understanding of insurance but also inspired them to consider insurance as a vital component of financial planning. The interactive sessions, expert insights received positive feedback from both students and faculty members.

Acknowledgments: We express our sincere thanks to Our College President, Er. Pon. BALASUBRAMANIAN Sir and Secretary, Shri. Pon. RAVICHANDRAN Sir, for their support and guidance, to conduct this event successfully.

Special appreciation goes to the organizing committee and volunteers whose efforts ensured the success of this event.

Future Prospects: Moving forward, the Department of Commerce and Economics intends to continue organizing such awareness programmes on pertinent topics to foster holistic learning and prepare students for professional challenges in the field of business and economics.
